

Self-Monitoring and Self-Management of coagulation status using point-of-care coagulometers (the CoaguCheck System and INRange)

Agenda

Wednesday 23rd October 2018 9.30am (Registration) to 2.30pm

AJ Bell Stadium, 1 Stadium Way, Barton-Upon-Irwell M30 7EY

Time	Activity	Lead
9.30	Arrival, registration and networking
10.00	Welcome and introduction	Cara Afzal, Senior Programme Development Lead, Health and Implementation, Health Innovation Manchester
10.05	Open	(TBC)
10.10	County Durham & Darlington FT Five years on, what would we do differently if we did it all again?	Ian Dove, Business Development Manager, County Darlington & Durham Foundation Trust
10.30	Isle of Wight Self-Management Project	Pauline Mairs, Commissioning Manager, Isle of Wight CCG
10.50	Setting up and managing a service Manchester CCG - Key ingredients of success	Betty Brough, Clinical Lead Anti-coagulant Specialist Nurse, Pennine Acute Hospitals NHS
11.10	Refreshment Break
11.30	What do patients need? Patient experience of using the self-testing services, what worked well, what were the challenges	Expert Patient Panel facilitated by Julia Reynolds, Associate Director, Connected Health Cities & Head of Programmes at Innovation Agency, North West Coast
12.00	Workshop Discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What ideas do we think would help improve the implementation of a self-testing programme? Current/ future challenges and barriers What are the steps to go through to commission services such as this?	Facilitated discussions

1.00	Lunch
1.30	East Lancashire Hospital Hospital plans, successfully implemented in both environments, and supporting patients in both.	Mags Hanratty, East Lancashire Hospital Trust
1.45	Wigan Community implementation	Suzanne Holland, Wigan Borough Federated Health Care Ltd
2.00	Summary of learning points - what might be the next steps for our regions	Julia Reynolds, Associate Director, Connected Health Cities & Head of Programmes at Innovation Agency, North West Coast Cara Afzal, Senior Programme Development Lead, Health and Implementation, Health Innovation Manchester
2.25-2.30	Closing Remarks	(TBC)